President's Message

A huge shout out to the Glendale Woodturners Guild on our 30th anniversary, the first meeting was on June 13, and acknowledged as Chapter # 60 with AAW, on June 16, 1993.

Many thanks to Bill Hrnjak and Leslie

Parsons for all they have done, along with countless others, to make our club what it is today! WOW, 30 years!

One of the original members, Brian, was at the meeting and talked a little bit about the good old days.

I interviewed several people about their why, their passion. Bill Haskell how he started turning and how he met people in the guild who were so welcoming, and helpful. Bill Loitz talked about the purpose of the club being education, and how he enjoys showing people what not to do, and to be safe.

Many thanks to Jim Hurst, who brought us up-to-date with our website! The guild has decided to stick with Tony, who has done an amazing job, helping the club for so many years, and volunteering his services. We've offered to pay him, but he si

Regarding the website, we MUST support Tony, and provide him with basic information so he can do his job. This has been an issue for some time, let's resolve it!

Bill Haskell, very kindly and generously donated a gorgeous olive hollow form to raise money for the club. There was a bit of debate regarding the best way to do it, auction it or sell raffle tickets. In the end, we sold raffle tickets for $10 apiece and generated $420 for GWG! Incredible Bill, thank you so very much!

And the man behind the ongoing Beads of Courage, Bob Clark, produced 10 lidded boxes to donate, excellent job! Not sure what the total count was, but we were down a bit. Let's step up next year and make many more please.

Goeff, the president of a woodturning club in Melbourne, Australia was our guest, along with his friend Meg. Also new to the club was Lexi and Gracie, welcome! When asked how they found out us, they said the Internet.

SO, the Internet, OUR WEBSITE is critical for us to grow and keep this fantastic art going.

And yours truly did a last minute presentation on shape. This generated some conversation about what the ideal shape is, and various tools to check your work. A well done, and appealing piece is one that compels you to pick it up, and hold it.

We always need people to do a presentation, even if it's a brief one.

Here's to another 30 years! Who will be President in 2053? Probably Zane....geeze he'll be 40!

Thomas

CHALLENGE

Our (non) Challenge for June was Beads of Courage Boxes. Various makers, I think the bottom photo here were Bob Clark's pieces.

SHOW AND TELL

Jim Schopper brought some weed pots he didn't get ready for last month's challenge. Box elder; pecan multi axis, both no finish and "you're not going to get that piece finished gluing up before Sunday's meeting!"

Olive multi axis, lacquer.

(I'm afraid his metal "weeds" didn't show up that well against my grey background).

James Hurst had a couple of pierced vases, Italian cypress, Deft clear finish; blue gum eucalyptus, rattle can spray finish, Allan Knutson had a mango platter and a live edge small bowl, both spray lacquer finish.

Bill Haskell's olive piece he donated which was raffled off. The lucky winner was our Librarian, Jim Vollmer.

Carey Caires made some spinning tops of laminated wood to put into some of the BofC boxes.

PRESENTATION

After lighting the candles on our 30 Anniversary cake, President Thomas Cassidy did an impromptu presentation on Shapes.
